NEW YORK CITY, NY – October 28, 2008 - Donlin Recano and Company, Inc., the leading bankruptcy management consultancy, announced today that Scott Stuart has been named Partner of the firm. As a thought leader and respected member of the bankruptcy community, Scott will spearhead a long-term business model that uniquely separates Donlin Recano from its competitors.

“As a company who defines our highest potential in growth and development by the values of leadership, innovation and commitment, Donlin Recano is extremely pleased to announce the appointment of Scott Stuart as Partner of the firm,” said Lou Recano, Chief Executive Officer of Donlin Recano. “Scott’s know-how and expertise as an attorney as well as an entrepreneur in the turnaround world will boost Donlin Recano’s continued growth and viability well into the next-generation.”

Donlin Recano, which is celebrating its 20th anniversary of business this year, focuses on driving simple yet effective client services, a trait which is unique to the industry. Recognized as an “industry mover” by the Daily Bankruptcy Review, Scott Stuart focuses on catalyzing the efficiencies, technologies and service processes critical to the industry.

“Donlin Recano’s extensive history throughout the industry is the foundation for what is done in bankruptcy management today,” said Scott Stuart, Partner of Donlin Recano. “As partner, I look forward to securing the relationships established over the last 20 years to propel new beginnings one successful experience at a time.”

Donlin Recano’s extensive client base across a number of industries in both the public and private-sectors will benefit from Mr. Stuart’s appointment as well. His understanding of all aspects of bankruptcy management processes and new business development will propel the company to expand its market share, particularly in the middle marketplace where Donlin Recano has always thrived.

About Donlin Recano

Donlin Recano is the leading claims management company that has served over 200 national clients across a broad range of industries and business sectors. Working with counsel, turnaround advisors and the affected company, Donlin Recano helps organize and guide Chapter 11 clients through administrative bankruptcy tasks, including provision of Web site-accessible information, formation of professional call centers, management of claims, balloting, distribution and other administrative services.

The company also provides similar services to creditor committees of clients in an effort to comply with The Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention and Consumer Protection Act of 2005.
